TENNESSEE.

When the last Constitutional Amendment passed, the understanding, in Congress and out, was that on its ratification by any one of the seceding States the delegations from such States should be admitted to seats in the Senate and House of Representatives. On the 19th inst. Gov. Brownlow telegraphed to Washington that the Tennessee Legislature had ratified the Amendment, 43 to 11—two refusing to vote, thus making 56 members, a full quorum, present when the vote was taken.

As soon as this telegram was received, a motion was made in the House to admit the Tennessee members to seats. This was resisted by Mr. Stevens, from a desire to ascertain whether or not the Amendment had been sanctioned in a way to be legally binding. He finally succeeded in getting the question put over to the next day, when the joint resolution passed, twelve members dissenting, among them Mr. Thomas Williams, but not Mr. Stevens.

The two members of the Tennessee Legislature who refused to record their votes were recusants brought into the hall by the Sergeant-at-Arms. This is one of the duties of that officer in all deliberative bodies. At Washington, quorums of one or both Houses are frequently obtained through his instrumentality, and no one has ever questioned the legality of proceedings had under such coerced attendance. The members are bound in law to be present, and when they fail voluntarily to be in their places, it is reasonable and right they should be constrained. A member who so wishes can resign, but he is never at liberty to defeat legislation by absenting himself without leave first asked and obtained.

Upon the adoption of the joint resolution by the Senate the members elected for Tennessee will be at liberty to present their credentials. It does not follow that whoever presents credentials, duly attested, will be admitted. Each House still retains the right, and is in duty bound, to inquire into the loyalty of the holders of credentials. The Test Oath is still in force. A claimant who cannot take that Oath must surely stand aside. But beyond this, each House has a right to fix own standard of loyalty, and may exclude any one who does not come up to it. On this head, the right of each House is full and exclusive. Even the President has affirmed this right in very strong terms, and on various occasions. There is no probability that the Senate or House will enforce a factious or unreasonable standard of loyalty; but it ought to be understood from the beginning that leaders in the Rebellion "must take back seats;" that no man will be admitted whose hands are stained with the blood of the defenders of the Government. There are men in each of the revolted States, eminently fitted for the performance of Congressional duties, who can qualify under this standard, and if the Southern people are not in a frame of mind to elect them, they are not yet in a mood to take part in the national deliberations.

MR. DENNISON'S RETIREMENT from the Cabinet we approve. The reasons he assigns for retiring are discreditable either to his candor or his intelligence. These reasons are that the President is opposed to the Constitutional Amendment, and is in favor of the Philadelphia Convention, which is designed by him and its other promoters to baffle and overthrow the Republican organization.

Not long ago Mr. DENNISON made his serenade speech. The Constitutional Amendment had then been considered in Cabinet. The President's opposition to it was just as well known then as now. Of his determination to do what he could to break up the Republican party and bring the Rebels and Copperheads back into power, there was as indubitable evidence then as has since been disclosed. Yet Mr. DENNISON stood up before a crowd of people, expecting his remarks, as they were, would be promptly telegraphed to all parts of the country, that the differences between the President and Congress were not very great or irreconcilable. He threw, upon premeditation, the weight of his influence, confessedly great, on the wrong side. He did much to encourage the President, and much to discourage and circumvent all men who were struggling to anchor the government on the sure ground of unshaken loyalty.

While, therefore, we are glad that Mr. DENNISON has as at last planted himself where he ought to have taken his stand months ago, we are not disposed to award him much credit. His tardiness has robbed his action of merit, and tarnished his fame for promptness and undisguise.

THE New York capitalists do not like that provision of Mr. SHERMAN'S Finance Bill which prohibits national banks from holding compound-interest notes as part of their reserve. We did not suppose they would. They much prefer having their reserve draw compound interest. Probably if we ever get back to a specie basis they will want some means devised by which their reserve of coin shall draw compound interest. The People "do not see it."

It is useless to declaim against the stringency to which this provision tends. That is its merits. It will resolve the compound-interest notes into actual loans to the Government, as originally intended, and compel the holding of greenbacks as reserve. To that extent the redeemancy of paper money will be abated, the price of gold lowered, and specie payments be made so much the more practicable. The inflationists may as well cease howling. The People want again to see the day when a dollar shall mean one hundred cents. Preliminary thereto they want the shinplaster nuisance abated.

THE Union Republican conferees of the Twenty-first District, comprising Westmoreland, Fayette and Indiana Counties, met yesterday at the Monongahela House in this city. The meeting was orderly and harmonious. Hon. John Covode, of Westmoreland county, was unanimously nominated for Congress. The conferees could have made no wiser or better choice, and we congratulate our friend upon this new evidence of the confidence reposed in him by the constituents he so faithfully represented for so long a period in the National Legislature. His election will be an easy matter as no other gentleman of that District could have been chosen, who would carry more strength with the ticket.

VOLUME LXXX.---NO. 174. PITTSBURGH, WEDNESDAY, JULY 25, 1866. PRICE THREE CENTS.

THE Post endeavors to explain "negro equality" in the Democratic sense, and cites a bar-room incident in Washington as a proof of the presumptive claims of American citizens of African descent. In the matter of dram drinking we agree with our contemporary that the negro should not be permitted to drink with white men. He is worthy of higher privileges, and should not descend to bar-room equality.

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, only four members dissenting, have voted, in substance, that Provost Marshal General FRY is unfit to hold office. A larger majority of the people of the loyal States, who have had intercourse with the Bureau over which he presides, would doubtless have expressed the same opinion any time during the last three years, if they had been furnished an opportunity.

THE Congressional conferees of the 20th District, comprising Crawford, Mercer, Venango and Clarion counties, resumed their balloting at Meadville on Monday, for a Congressional candidate, but up to last accounts by mail, had made no choice. D. A. Finney, of Crawford, or W. T. McAdam, of Mercer, will probably be the choice.

Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher.

In the vast change which the medical science has passed through in the last twenty years, a great impulse has been given to the scientific compounding of medicines for purifying the blood. And since it is true, that "the blood is the life," and that as long as this vital fluid, the blood, maintains its average natural proportion of constituents, the fruitfulness of boyhood and gentleness of girlhood, the vigor of manhood and loveliness of womanhood, are maintained in all their pristine beauty; and that when the blood becomes tainted with any of the seeds of disease that are daily being engendered in the human system, that ruddiness and gentleness, that vigor and loveliness, from the moment of contamination, begins to fade, to wither, and decay—how important that these seeds of disease be at once searched out, their effects counteracted, and their substance dispelled from the blood.

To find a remedy that would accomplish this, has been the great study of the master minds of the medical world for ages. The accumulated experience of these medical scholars has, by the most assiduous energy and profound research, been carefully scanned by the rare and ripe medical scholar and practitioner of medicine, GEORGE H. KEYSER, M. D., and all the valuable information obtained therefrom has been added to the knowledge gained by his own life-long experience in testing medical preparations; which patient research resulted in the scientific combination of all the most valuable principles known for the purpose, into one of the most wonderfully blood-searching remedies ever prepared by the art or skill of man, viz: DR. KEYSER'S BLOOD SEARCHER. After a most thorough and complete education, for more than twenty years, in all the varied branches of orthodox medicine, and graduating in one of the best medical colleges of the United States, he has been enabled by his genius and skill to compound and prepare a "Blood Searcher" according to the strictest principles of science and the highest rules of medicinal art; to make a medicine that is truly a purifier of the blood and a renovator of the human system. No inferior article of the materia medica passes his scrutinizing selections, nor enters into any of his prepared "compounds," but the very best ingredients are always purchased by him without regard to cost, and their most valuable medicinal virtues extracted by the most approved chemical process.

The writer of this has known him long and well, both in his business and professional character, as well as in the more private walks of life; and knowing the energy, care and ability exercised in the scientific preparation of Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher, and the honesty of purpose and purity of intentions which have ever characterized the actions of the proprietor, and having a knowledge of the compound itself, (being a medical man,) he cannot doubt the great medical virtues of the remedy in all impurities of the blood.

North American Transit Insurance Company of Philadelphia—Portland Fire.

The North American Fire Insurance Company has paid its losses at Portland, and received from the insured the following testimonial:

PORTLAND, ME., July 9, 1866.

The undersigned, having held policies in the North American Fire Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., bear grateful testimony to the prompt and liberal manner the same have been adjusted and paid, thereby alleviating the losses sustained by the recent terrible conflagration. We cordially recommend the North American, of Hartford, to the confidence and patronage of the public.

HARTFORD, July 13, 1866.

To the Patrons of the Connecticut Fire Insurance Company:

The Old Connecticut takes pleasure in announcing to its patrons that the disastrous conflagration in Portland, on the Fourth of July, has in no way affected its soundness or prosperity. It has just declared and paid its 38th dividend, and the money is in bank to pay every dollar of its losses, most of which have been adjusted and paid. The claims already adjusted reduce its whole loss to $17,000, which it is expected will be still fu ther reduced by adjustments now being made. After paying every dollar of its losses it has a cash surplus of $200,000; can reinsure every risk, and show a larger per centage of surplus than, with very few exceptions, any company now doing business.

To the Martyrs of Liver Complaint.

Among the wonderful medical properties which have rendered HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS pre-eminent among the health-restoring preparations of the age, its anti-bilious virtues are not the least remarkable. No words can do justice to its marvelous effect upon the diseased liver. Perhaps the simple words of a convalescent sufferer, who describes it as "going right to the spot," tell the story as clearly as may be. It does go right to the spot. It operates directly upon the disordered organ, and whether unduly active or in a state of paralysis, restores it to a condition of health. The Sickness at the Stomach, pain between the Shoulders and in the Right Side, Yellow Suffusion of the Skin, Costiveness, Drowsiness and Languor, Dimness of Sight, Colic, Palpitation of the Heart, Dry Cough, Low Fever, and other symptoms which indicate the various phases of Acute and Chronic Liver Complaint, are one and all promptly relieved, and finally removed, by the action of this famous preparation, which is at once the best of correctives, the gentlest and most genial of aperients, an infallible regulator, and a powerful restorative. Persons of a bilious habit, who use the Bitters as a protective medicine, will never suffer the pains and penalties of Liver disease or Bilious Remittent Fever.

TENNESSEE.

Message from the President.

THE JOINT RESOLUTION SIGNED.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The President this morning transmitted the annexed message, namely:

To the House of Representatives.—The following joint resolution restoring Tennessee to her relations to the Union was last evening presented to me for approval: "Whereas, In the year 1861 the Government of the State of Tennessee was seized upon and taken possession of by persons in hostility to the United States and the inhabitants of said State, in pursuance to an act of Congress, were declared to be in a state of insurrection against the United States; and whereas, said State government can only be restored to its former political relations in the Union by the consent of the law making power of the United States; and whereas, the people of said State did, on the 22d day of February, 1865, by a large popular vote, adopt and ratify a constitution and government whereby slavery was abolished and all ordinances and laws of secession, and debts contracted under the same, were declared null and void; and whereas, a State government has been organized under said constitution, which has ratified the amendment to the constitution of the United States abolishing slavery, and also the amendment proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and has declared such acts proclaiming and declaring loyalty, therefore, be it

"Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, in Congress assembled, That the State of Tennessee is hereby restored to her former practical relations to the Union, and is again entitled to be represented by Senators and Representatives in Congress."

The preamble consists simply of statements, some of which are not facts. The body of the resolution is merely a declaration of opinion. It comprises no legislation, nor does it confer any power which is binding upon the respective Houses, Executive, or Judiciary. It does not admit to their seats in Congress, the Senators and Representatives from the State of Tennessee, for, at the outset, the passage of the resolution, each House, in the exercise of the constitutional right to judge for itself of the election returns and qualifications of its members, may, at its discretion, admit them or continue to exclude them. If a joint resolution of the character were necessary, and pending as a precedent to the admission of members of Congress, it would happen in the event of a veto by the Executive, that Senators and Representatives could only be admitted to the halls of Congress by a two-thirds vote of each of the two Houses.

Among other reasons read in the preamble for the declarations contained in the resolution, is the ratification by the State government of Tennessee of the amendment to the constitution of the United States prohibiting slavery, and also, the amendment proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress. If, as is also set forth in the preamble, the ratification by Tennessee can only be restored to its former political relations in the Union by the consent of the law making power of the United States, it would really seem to follow that the ratification, which, at this late day has received the sanction of Congress, should have been passed, approved and placed on the statute book before any action ought to be had. The constitution was submitted to the Legislature of Tennessee for ratification, otherwise the initiative pertained originally to Congress. In my opinion Congress the people of a State may be too strongly disloyal to be entitled to representation, they may, nevertheless, during the slumber of their local forces, by reason of previous to the Union, have an equally potent voice with other and loyal States in a proposition to amend the constitution upon which so essentially depends the stability, prosperity and very existence of the nation.

A brief reference to my annual message of the 4th of December last, in which the steps taken by the Executive for the restoration to their constitutional relations of the States that had been affected by the rebellion. Upon the occupation of the several insurrectionary States governors were appointed, conventions called, governors elected by the people, legislatures reassembled, and Senators and Representatives chosen to the Congress of the United States. At the same time the Courts of the United States were reopened, the broken-down machinery of the internal revenue laws for the collection of taxes, duties and imposts, and postal operations resumed. The amendment to the constitution abolishing slavery forever within the limits of the United States, was submitted to the several States, and they were duly invited to, and did, participate in a ratification, thus exercising the highest function of sovereignty. In addition, nearly all of these States, through their Conventions and Legislatures, had adopted and ratified constitutions of government, thereby repudiating the ordinances and laws of secession, and debts contracted under the same, were declared null and void, and, by the proper action and assent of the Senate and House of the United States, the Federal Government had been fully, and completely recognized and acknowledged by the Executive Department of the Government, and the representatives of the States thus restored, which had progressed so favorably, was submitted to Congress, upon which devolved all questions pertaining to the admission to their seats of the Senators and Representatives chosen from the States, whose people were engaged in the rebellion. All these steps were taken by me prior to the fourth day of December, 1865, the 39th Congress assembled Ninety eight months have elapsed since that time, and during that time no steps proposed by Congress for the measures instituted by the Executive, it is now declared in the joint resolution submitted for my approval, that the State of Tennessee is hereby restored to her former political relations to the Union, and is again entitled to be represented by Senators and Representatives in Congress.

Thus, after the lapse of nearly eight months, Congress proposes to pass the way to the admission of the Representatives of one of the seven States which had pledged themselves in rebellion against the Constitutional authority of the Federal government.

Earnestly desiring to relieve every cause of further bloodshed, or unnecessary loss of life in any part of Congress, to the admission to seats of loyal Senators and Representatives from the State of Tennessee, and entirely disliking the anomalous character of this proceeding, affixed my signature to the resolution. My approval, however, is not, to be construed as an acknowledgment of the right of Congress to pass laws preliminary to the admission of duly qualified Representatives from any of the States. Neither is it to be considered as committing me to all the statements made in the preamble, some of which are, in my opinion, without foundation in fact, especially that the people of the State of Tennessee has ratified the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-Ninth Congress. No official information of that fact has been received by the Executive, or filed in the department of state. On the contrary, unofficial information from most reliable sources gives the belief that the amendment has not been constitutionally sanctioned by the Legislature of Tennessee.

The right of each House under the constitution to judge of the election returns and qualifications of its own members is undoubted, and my approval or disapproval of the resolution could not, in the slightest degree, increase or diminish the authority in this respect, conferred upon the two branches of Congress.

In conclusion, I cannot too earnestly repeat my recommendation for the admission of Tennessee, and all other States, to a fair and equal participation in the National legislature, when they present themselves in the persons of loyal Senators and Representatives, who can comply with all the requirements of the constitution. Whenever this means harmony and reconciliation will be effected, the political relations of all the States to the federal government reestablished, and the work of restoration inaugurated upon the termination of the war successfully completed.

[Signed,] ANDREW JOHNSON.
Washington, D. C., July 24th, 1866.

FROM NEW ORLEANS,

Plotters' Convention—Threatened Arrest—Johnson's Policy—Health and Prosperity of the city—State Democratic Meeting—Reported Cholera Cases Among Troops.

NEW ORLEANS, July 24.—Arrangements have been made to arrest the Convention of plotters if they attempt to meet on the 27th. The charge to the Grand Jury is positive.

The enthusiasm for President Johnson grows livelier every day. The mass meeting tonight was largely attended, and was nearly unanimous in favor of Johnson's policy.

There are universal congratulations at the health and prosperity of the city.

NEW ORLEANS, July 24.—An immense meeting of the Democracy of the State was held tonight, and ratified the nominations of the State Committee. Resolutions were adopted deprecating the motives of the Conventionists of '64; that it is the duty of the officers of the State to take such steps as the occasion demands to save Louisiana from anarchy, which threatens her because of the reckless indictment of unworthy citizens, and pretended packet of unworthy citizens and pretended packet of unworthy citizens and pretended packet of the South. Louisiana pledges herself to the honest support of Johnson's policy; that the Philadelphia Convention is fairly entitled to the speakers were received with applause on the Radicals, secession was denounced, and the emancipation of slavery fully accepted.

Some few cases of sickness, believed to be cholera, are reported among the troops recently arrived, but these have been removed from the city.

FROM NASHVILLE,

Representatives Expelled—Speaker Relieved—Collector's Office Robbed.

NASHVILLE, July 24.—Messrs. Porter, Marable, Brittle, Foster, Martin and Williams, members of the Tennessee House of Representatives, were expelled to-day. The two latter were the members recently arrested. Speaker Hieskill, of the House, was relieved from duty, and his own request for the remainder of the term. Judge Nomane was elected instead, pro. tem.

The office of United States Revenue Collector, Mr. Norvell, of this city, was robbed last night by burglars, of $2,300 in United States Treasury notes, and some $400 in checks. The burglars used false keys. No clue has been obtained to the robbery.

WASHINGTON, July 24, 1866.

SENATE.

The bill for the speedy completion of the Northern Pacific Railroad, recently recommitted to the Committee on the Pacific Railroad, was reported by Mr. Howard, and on his motion further consideration was postponed until to-morrow.

Mr. Wilson called up the army bill, recently passed, and moved to amend by substituting for it the bill recently passed by the Senate. He did this, he said, to get the subject before conference committee. As amended the bill

To [illegible] in relation to bounties to colored soldiers was taken up, amended and passed.

A bill to grant land to aid in the construction of the Stockton and Caporopah railroad, in California, was passed.

A bill granting public lands in alternate sections for aiding in the construction of the Southern Pacific Railroad, in California, was passed.

Pending action upon it, the House at 4.45 took a recess until 7.45 P. M.

Evening Session.—On motion of Mr. Banks all further proceedings in relation to the assault upon Mr. Grinnell were dispensed with. This relieves Messrs. Pennybacker, Grisby and McGrew from being brought to the Bar of the House.

The House took up the business on the Speaker's table and disposed of it as follows: The Senate bill to change the public grounds surrounding the Capitol was referred to the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds. The Senate joint resolution granting the right of way through the military reserves to the Union Pacific Railroad Company and its branches. The Senate joint resolution to provide for codifying the laws relating to the customs. Passed.

The Senate joint resolution for the relief of the Illinois Soldiers' College and Military Academy was passed.

The senate amendments to the House bill to protect the revenue and for other purposes came up.

Mr. Morrill moved that the amendments be non-concurred in, and a Committee of Conference asked.

Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, preferred that the House should concur in the Senate amendments striking out the fifth section, which provides for adding to the value of goods the cost of transportation, commission charges, &c.

Mr. Wentworth remarked that the draw had come for the purpose of Western Wheat, free from the manufacturers of the East. If protection was a good thing, let it go all around. Let the Eastern and Westerngrowers have their full share of it.

After some discussion, all the amendments of the Senate, except that striking out the fifth section, were non-concurred in, the question recurred on non-concurring in the amendment striking out the ninth section. On a division, there were 81 yeas against 8 nays. The Speaker gave the casting vote in the negative.

Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, called for the yeas and nays, which were ordered.

The vote was taken, and resulted in 50 yeas and 60 nays. So all the amendments of the Senate were non-concurred in, and a Committee of Conference was asked.

On motion of Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, the House insisted on its amendments.

A Committee of Conference was given to several members.

Mr. Bingham, from the Conference Committee on the House Joint Resolution for the relief of certain officers of the army, made a report which was agreed to. He explained that the effect of the report was to give to officers where a commissioned officer actually entered on his duty, but by reason of being killed in battle, or captured by the enemy, was prevented from receiving his commission, the word "mustered into" be regarded as the pay department shall allow him the full pay and emolument of his rank from the time he entered on duty.

Mr. Raymond announced the receipt from Signor Salviati, Venetian artist, of a mosaic portrait of Abraham Lincoln, executed as a testimonial of respect for the deceased President. The portrait was ordered to be placed in the library of Congress.

A large number of resolutions and bills of no general importance were acted upon or referred. Many of these were of private bills.

The House adjourned to-day.

National Sacngerbund and Festival at Louisville—Drowned Body Found.

LOUISVILLE, July 24.—The fourth annual festival of the National Sacngerbund was commenced this morning. The procession was formed on Main street, and was a brilliant affair, from nearly every large city in the Union. Our city presents a holiday appearance, every house in the line of march being decorated in position from public and private buildings. Every preparation has been made for the entertainment of the many thousands guests here and are expected. The most generous and hearty hospitality is everywhere apparent. There was a grand procession this afternoon of the singers from different parts of the country, which reached the Exhibition Building on Broadway, erected for the occasion, and occupied the stage, where accommodations for 3,000 singers had been provided. Mayor Lingon eloquently welcomed the musical societies to the hospitalities of the city, and was gracefully and heartily replied to by Professor Hoffman, on behalf of the Sacngerbund. Professors Salmonewski, Hadr and Silgerr directed the musical festivities which were received with great applause. The singing, for which the various societies accompanied by thousands of our citizens, held a recess at Woodland Garden, where one thousand persons were present. It was a gay hour. The fun continues through the week, and concludes on Saturday with a grand excursion to the Mammoth Cave.

The body of a man was picked up to-day, and was drowned off the ferry boat yesterday, while in a state of intoxication. The governor has a report that the body is that of Sergeant Cleveland Musical Societies. A thorough investigation shows that the corpse is not that of one of the singers, though the individual has not been identified.

The Case of Benjamin F. Beveridge—Abstract of the Crop Returns.

Washington, July 24.—Benjamin F. Beveridge, in accordance with the order of the House of Representatives, has been delivered by the Sergeant-at-Arms into the custody of the civil authorities, to be proceeded against in the Criminal Court for the assault upon A. H. Palmer, Clerk of the Committee on Postoffices and Post Roads. He has given bail in the sum of one thousand dollars for his appearance.

The abstract of the crop returns for July, just issued from the Department of Agriculture, shows the prospect of a year of average productiveness. The returns, which are marked by thousands of correspondents of the Department, point to an average of about eight and one-half tenths of an average yield in quantity of wheat, of a quality that will make it equal in value to last year's crop. The showing is much more favorable than in the June report. Winter barley is in very nearly the same condition as the wheat. The oat crop has been materially damaged, especially in the West. The condition of pastures is generally above the average. With the exception of Maine and New Hampshire, every State reports a greater breadth of corn than usual. A somewhat diminished average of sorghum is indicated. There is nearly an average breadth of flax in every State, more potatoes than usual were planted, which promise better than usual. The prospect for apples is not as good as usual, and no fruit upon the list makes so poor a showing as peaches.

Late European News.

NEW YORK, July 24.—The Tribune's Milan correspondent says, the suspension of hostilities is singularly unanimous against the Austrian propositions. Much impatience is exhibited at the delay in military operations. Suspicion begins to be felt regarding some of Napoleon's deals. Many speculations are indulged as to negotiations for peace, but the general impression is that war must continue.

Radical Convention at Sedalia, Mo.

SEDALIA, Mo., July 23.—The Radical convention here to-day, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress, was very large and enthusiastic. It is estimated that ten thousand people were present. Joseph W. McClurg was nominated for re-election by acclamation.

It appears that the shavings of iron and steel, and especially the long spirals produced in turning iron on the lathe, are highly magnetic, particularly in the case of soft iron. Fatal Railroad Accident.

A singular accident occurred on the Pennsylvania Railroad, between Turtle Creek and Brinton's Stations, on Monday night, resulting in the death of Thomas Lynch, a resident of the vicinity. At the inquest held by Coroner Clawson on Tuesday afternoon, the facts were developed, in substance: Lynch had been drinking freely, and started homewards from Brinton's Station, walking along the railroad track. On the way he stopped at the house of an acquaintance, but the hour being late, he was refused admittance, and before leaving got into an altercation with the wife of the man occupying the house. He was observed on the track about ten o'clock, and cautioned to be careful. The "Day Express," due in this city at eleven o'clock, p. m., passed Turtle Creek Station about seven minutes behind time, and when arriving at the outer depot the locomotive was detached, the train being taken to the lower depot by one of the stationary engines. When about shifting the cars on to the "house track" leading into the outer depot the next business in order, a man lying in front of the engine. Upon procuring a light the man was found to be dead, and quite cold. One leg was broken, and his throat apparently cut. The body was ascertained to be that of Thomas Lynch, and it would seem from what was elicited, that he was struck by the locomotive at a sharp curve of the road, near Turtle Creek Station. His hat was found at the place, but there was nothing else to indicate the fact, the engineer not having observed him, nor was he aware of the circumstance until the discovery of the body on the engine at the outer depot. It is supposed that Lynch was struck whilst walking and thrown into the position he was found. His throat was severed from ear to ear, but the manner in which this was done did not clearly appear. Unanimously the jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts and exonerating the officers of the train from blame. Deceased was a laborer, forty-five or fifty years of age, and leaves a wife and six children.

Drunk and Disorderly.

A woman named Lewelian Rosenburgh was brought before Mayor McCarthy, yesterday, charged on oath of Henry Wilson with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. The charge being substantiated by several responsible witnesses Mrs. Rosenburgh was sent to jail for three days, to allow her time to recuperate her moral constitution, which, judging from outward showing, might be amended without danger to the patient. We subsequently learned that Mrs. Rosenburgh had been stopping for a day or two at the Meanor House, on Fourth street, where she left a little daughter in the care of the proprietress, telling him she could call for the child as soon as she could find another boarding house. Mr. Kerr refused to allow her to stop any longer, although she offered him a large amount of money for the privilege of doing so. Believing the child to be deserted by its parent, Mr. Kerr, in the kindness of his heart, determined to provide for it himself. Hearing that the mother had been arrested he charitably, in his mind, fearing that on her release she would reclaim the little one, who seems vastly pleased with its new home, as the mother, as her self well known as a notorious character, it is to be hoped the law will interfere and prevent her again gaining possession of the child again, she being totally unfit to fulfill the duties of a mother.

Infanticide in Robinson Township.

On Monday afternoon, while some boys were playing around School House, No. 8, in Robinson township, located near McKee's Rocks, they found there the body of an infant in the privy attached to the building. Information was immediately given to persons residing in the vicinity, and on repairing to the spot they succeeded in recovering the body, and found it to be that of a male child apparently five or six weeks old at the time of its death. Yesterday morning Coroner Kelly, assisted by a jury, held an inquest on the locality, and after empannelling a jury, proceeded to investigate the matter. Several witnesses were examined, but there was no clue obtained as to the discovery of the perpetrators of the shocking crime. The child had evidently lived some weeks, but not a mark of violence upon the body could be found, so it was impossible to detect any marks of violence on the body. The jury rendered a verdict that the deceased came to its death from violence at the hands of some person or persons to the jury unknown.

An Exciting Foot Race.

West Common, Allegheny City, in the vicinity of the Penitentiary, was the scene of quite an exciting foot race yesterday afternoon, between Jesse Kersch and David Boden, the former having challenged the latter to run three hundred yards for a purse of $40. The affair had been kept as secret as possible, but nevertheless, at the appointed hour, a crowd numbering some three hundred, consisting of men, women and children, were on the ground, all anxious to witness the pedestrian display. At a given signal the start was effected, Boden taking the lead at the start, but ere the goal was reached, Kersch overtook him and came in winner by about two yards. The purse was handed over to the victor, when the principals and their backers repaired to a tavern near by, for the purpose of signaling the event by a social time.

Meeting of the Johnson Club.

The admirers of President Johnson's policy in this city, held a meeting last night at No. 21 Fifth street, for the purpose of electing delegates to the Conservative, Cowan-bould-of-the Convention that meets in Philadelphia on the 14th of August, and also to frame a State Convention that will assemble at the same place on the succeeding day. The following are the names of the delegates chosen to the first Convention:

Twenty-second Congressional District—James Lowrie, Jr., Samuel McKee.

Twenty-third Congressional District—J. K. Butterfield, samuel McKelvy.

To the Convention on the 15th, the following were chosen:

Senatorial Delegate—A. G. Lloyd.

Representative Delegates—Hall Patterson, A. L. Robinson, J. G. Duff, James Blackmore, J. R. Butterfield, Thomas Donnelly and Robt Roach.

A Brave Girl.

Yesterday afternoon as some boys were bathing in the Monongahela, near dam No. 1, a little boy named Thomas Laughlin, a son of Mr. William Laughlin, residing in the Eighth ward, got beyond his depth, and being unable to swim sank beneath the surface. A young woman named Jane Murphy, who had come to the river for a bucket of water, seeing the struggling form of the little boy, rushed to his assistance, throwing aside every consideration of personal safety, she boldly rushed into the water and caught the drowning man, and after some difficulty succeeded in bringing him safely to shore. Life was almost extinct when taken from the river, but after a time he recovered sufficiently to be able to walk home. Too much praise cannot be bestowed on Miss Murphy for this noble act.

Charged with Stealing Harness.

Jerold Crosby was before Justice Miller, yesterday, charged with the larceny of a set of harness from the barn of Sebastian Folk, in Robinson township. The theft is alleged to have been committed some time last winter, but Folk believing it best to keep the matter quiet told no one of the circumstance until Saturday, when he discovered the missing harness on a horse belonging to Crosby, in Market Square, Birmingham. Without making his complaint known, he instituted proceedings against Crosby for larceny, with the result stated. Crosby admits that the harness may possibly belong to Folk, but avers that he purchased it last fall from a man named Gertner, at the end of the Monongahela bridge, in South Pittsburgh. After a hearing Crosby gave bail to answer at court.

Still Another Burglary.

On Sunday night or early on Monday morning, the trunk of Mr. W. Jarvis, a boarder at the Meanor House, was forced open and the contents strewn over the floor, but strange to state nothing was taken save a couple of $20 counterfeit notes, which the thief evidently judged to be genuine. Mr. Jarvis was sleeping in a bed under which the trunk was placed, but was unaware of the presence of the robber until the following morning, when he discovered his trunk as stated. This is the fifth burglary we have been called upon to chronicle during the last few days, each of which took place on Sunday night.

Railroad Accident.—

There was a smash-up on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, between the Allegheny Depot and Station No. 12, on last night. The accident occurred at Station No. 12, twenty-eight miles east of Cumberland, and was occasioned by one train running into the rear of another standing on the track. Twenty-three cars were thrown off, and the engine of the moving train badly smashed. But one man, Dan Brennan, was hurt, slightly. We are glad there was no loss of life. It is but rarely that we have to chronicle an accident on the Baltimore road.

Kicked a Door In.—

Anson James was arrested and lodged in the lock-up, last night, for kicking in the door of Mrs. Morgan's house, in the Fifth ward. Anson claims to be a citizen of Wheeling, and in defense he stated that he was a stranger in the city, and having no place wherein to rest his weary head decamped for lodging at Mrs. Morgan's, and being repulsed, endeavored to effect an entrance by kicking the door in. James will doubtless be afforded cheap lodgings for several days.

Threatened to Split Her Head.—

Matilda Groesbeck was before Alderman Lynch yesterday charged with surety of the peace on oath of Anna Spaulding. Matilda struck at her with an ax, and threatened to split her head open. Fearing she might, if not restrained by the law, carry her threat into execution, she requested that the accused be held to bail to keep the peace, which was accordingly done.

Boy Drowned in the Allegheny River.

A little son of Mr. James Lappin, residing at No. 31 Factory street, was drowned in the Allegheny river yesterday morning, about half past ten o'clock, under the following circumstances: He had gone to the river to gather some drift wood, and while endeavoring to reach a saw log that stood some distance out in the stream, he fell into the water and was drowned. On the father of the boy being informed of the fact a few moments after the occurrence, he ran to the river, and jumping into the water, succeeded almost instantly in recovering the body. Every effort was made to resuscitate, but all proved abortive. Alderman Donaldson held an inquest on the remains last evening, when the jury returned a verdict of accidental drowning.

Ferocious Dog.—

Martin Dermore was before Alderman Taylor yesterday for keeping a ferocious dog upon his premises in the Ninth ward. For the last few days the canine mentioned has taken into the notorious practice of biting every one that came in reach of its molars. At the hearing it was ascertained that Martin had shot the dog since the information was made, and as by that act he had complied with the law, he was discharged on payment of costs, the prosecutor, James O'Connor, withdrawing the suit.

New Lodge of Odd Fellows.—

A large delegation of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows left the city last night for East Liberty, where they propose to establish a new lodge. District Deputy Grand Master, Roth, together with Alderman Hunter, and several other dignitaries of the order, accompanied the delegation.

Disorderly.—

Joseph Gray was before Mayor McCarthy yesterday, charged with being "dead drunk," and acting in a riotous manner on the street. Joseph paid $10 and was discharged.

SELF GOVERNMENT.

The democracy which the founders of this Republic instituted, was not pure and simple, but hedged about with limitations and safeguards. A fear of excess was apparent in all their deliberations. Afterwards, a new tendency was developed, [illegible] Northern and [illegible] particularly in the [illegible] Western States, to bring all the departments of government into closer contact with and amenability to the people. The tendency was manifested, first, in taking from Governors the appointment of Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Prothonotaries, Clerks of Courts, Registers of Wills, Recorders of Deeds, and other local officers, connected with the Administration of justice and the security of individual rights, next, in making the Judges of the Courts elective by the people; and, finally, in designating by popular vote the chiefs of the several Departments of State, as Canal Commissioners, Superintendents of Public Instruction, Secretaries of State, Attorneys General, State Treasurers, and the like. Under the last specification Pennsylvania has stopped short of many of her sister States.

The first decided reaction against this tendency occurred in the city of New York. For the last three or four years long and successive strides have been made in removing power from the immediate control of the people. The Legislature has asserted the right to authorize the Governor to appoint Police Commissioners, Street Commissioners, Health Commissioners, Excise Commissioners, and other Boards of the municipal government. Most of these Boards have been armed with large authority.

As was naturally to be expected, this backward movement—this lodging power at one remove from the people—has given occasion to a great variety of comments. Some individuals hold it to be a tacit admission that government by the people is a failure; that the strain upon popular institutions, in our largest city, has already become more than they could bear; and that when a considerable portion of our territory shall become as populous as England, France, Belgium, Holland and some other European countries, it will become impossible to maintain social order without resorting to the same stringent governments which have obtained elsewhere. Other persons think that this movement is owing to a temporary ebullition of aristocratic spirit, consequent of a few years of unexampled prosperity, and that soon the current of political life will turn again into the former channel. A third class of individuals take a still different view, and allege that the backward movement is to be ascribed to the concurrent causes, differing widely from those already specified. They say that considerations of personal and family comfort have induced vast numbers of men, of the highest moral and intellectual type, and having the deepest stake in the welfare of the city, to take up their residences outside the municipal boundaries; that immigration has brought in masses of population not habituated to self-control and not sufficiently educated for its responsibilities; and that the peculiar isolation and privacy of a vast metropolis has drawn thither swarms of degraded or desperate characters from all parts of the Union. How far these causes are distinct in essence, and how far they are varying manifestations of one disease, every man who is accustomed, in mental processes, to reduce things to the last analysis, will determine for himself. Whoever undertakes and fully executes the process in this case will find food for serious reflection.

Recently the Excise Board in New York undertook, under a new law of the Legislature, to deal in a summary manner with the traffic in intoxicating drinks. They examined rigidly into the character of all applications for license. Applicants who had previously been engaged in the traffic licenses were refused whenever it appeared they had not maintained a proper degree of order and quiet. All barrooms were required to be closed at midnight, and on the Sabbath. Temperance people congratulated themselves that a most desirable reform had been initiated. At this point the liquor dealers made an appeal to the Courts. Men who had been arrested for violating the Excise Law were brought before the Judges on writs of habeas corpus and discharged, the law being pronounced unconstitutional.

Just here public sentiment divides. One class of men say, this is what comes of making the Judges elective; that the magistrates, from a desire for popularity, pander to the worst appetites and propensities of a vicious populace; and that, consequently, the election of the Judges must be taken from the people and restored again to the Governor and Senate. Another class say that the attempt to govern the city by special laws is in violation of the rights of the citizens; (they are not as used to special municipal laws in New York as we are in Pennsylvania;) that New York has the same right to govern itself as any other county in the State; and that restrictions upon strong potations, such as are attempted to be enforced, are repugnant to the feelings and practices of two-thirds of the people.

Of course, the case has gone up to the Supreme Court for settlement; and meantime the Excise Board have suspended the exercise of their functions. What the Supreme Court will adjudge in the premises it is not worth while to conjecture. The results of litigation are proverbially uncertain; and Courts seldom fail in seeking means for conforming their decisions to the will of the governing power, whether King or People.

In the discussion which has grown out of the action of the Courts so far, one fact is deserving of attention. A very considerable portion of the men engaged in the liquor traffic, admit that great irregularities, prejudicial to public morals and social order, have existed in connection therewith, and have been encouraged by certain grades of dealers. They express a willingness, which seems to be real, to abate these irregularities; to suppress effectually the dens in which rum is systematically made the seducer to all sorts of crimes; to bring the traffic as fully under the inspection and control of the authorities as any other business whatever. If ever this could be done, it would be a great gain. If teetotalers constituted "The People," that is, were a decided majority of the voters; they would have a clear right to prohibit entirely the manufacture and sale of ardent spirits. In a Democracy, there can be no other rule than the will of the majority. If so happens that in New York the majority are not in favor of total abstinence. However desirable that rule of living may be in theory, the many are not content to adopt it. Indeed, the new Excise Law is a recognition of this fact, for its object is not to prohibit, but to regulate the traffic. Under these circumstances, we do not see what other course is open to wise temperance men than to assent to the best law public sentiment will sustain, and help them enforce.

FOR SOME YEARS prior to the bursting out of the Rebellion the Southern democrats systematically labored to overawe the progress of public opinion, adverse to slavery, by threatening to inaugurate civil war. The northern democrats took up the cry and repeated it with such variations as they thought most likely to screen themselves from actual complicity with treasonable movements, and yet to answer the ends of their associates. Instead of arresting the march of opinion, the clamor rather accelerated it. The advocates of Union, Liberty reformation and [illegible] of their principles, or their rights as American citizens.

Hardly had the war closed before the Southern democrats, encouraged, thereto by President JOHNSON's Policy, renewed the attempt at intimidation. They began by indistinct intimations that the men who had made heroic resistance to federal authority would submit to be treated only as equals. Soon the tone became firmer and the utterance more distinct. Having failed to dissever and ruin the nation, they resolved to govern it once more. If this demand is not acquiesced in, they talk ominously of making another appeal to arms. Northern democrats chime in with the intimation that it will be prudent to yield to the Southern exaction, for if the war shall be renewed it will not be a war of one section against another, but of one political party against another, all over the country and especially throughout the northern States.

That is exactly what the northern democratic leaders promised, in advance, to make the late war, and what they signally failed to accomplish. They had not corrupted the bulk of their party as effectually as they thought they had. The sentiment of patriotism and the instinct of national unity proved too potent for them. What happened once will happen again. At all events, they may as well understand that the loyal men of the nation will not be cowed.

—A Western reporter wails bitterly over a superabundance of pic-nics, and, having a headache on the morning of July 5th, says: "They are variegated fooleries. They are sultry stupidities. They are elaborate funeral processions, marching with melancholy step between rows of pies and cakes, and ice cream."

Satisfied With His Record.

Hiester Clymer said in his speech in Reading, on Wednesday, that "his history as a politician was the history of the State for the last six years, and he would not today alter a line or blot out a particle of it." (We quote from the Age.) We are glad to notice that he is so frank. Let us see what he did for the soldiers and sailors on one or more occasions while he was in the State Senate. During the session of 1864 Senator Graham, of Allegheny, offered a resolution that the Senate of Pennsylvania urge upon Congress the propriety of increasing the pay of officers of the army and navy twenty-five per cent., and of privates one hundred per cent. On a motion to proceed to a second reading, the Democrats, with their leader, Mr. Clymer, voted in the negative, thus causing a tie vote, and the motion was lost. At the same session a joint resolution was adopted, requesting our Representatives in Congress to vote for and use their influence for the passage of a law increasing the pay of non-commissioned officers and private soldiers, but upon its final passage Hiester Clymer voted nay. Subsequently, when the bill regulating soldiers' elections was passed, Clymer again proved his consistency by voting against it. And yet, with this record, of which he now has the boldness to say he would not blot out a particle, he asks the soldiers and sailors to give him their votes. The effrontery is only equalled by that which promoted its organs to complain that he did not occupy a position in the heroic line which marched to Independence Square on the 4th of this month, there to deliver up their blood-stained and shell-riddled colors. —Philadelphia Press.

—The Court of Appeals, at Baltimore, has decided in a case brought before them, that a passenger on a stage coach or railroad car and a person walking on foot in the street do not stand in the same relation to the carrier. Toward the one the liability of the carrier springs from a contract, express or implied, and upheld by an adequate consideration. Toward the other the carrier is under no obligation but that of justice and humanity. The company are required by law to use only ordinary [illegible] diligence toward third parties, not passengers, or connected with them by contract, trust or confidence, and the obligation to exercise such ordinary care and diligence is mutual.

—A man calling himself John Clark arrived in Jefferson city a few days since, hailing from the Indian territory, and on his way to Pennsylvania, in very destitute circumstances and apparently nearly famished and quite overcome with disease. The city authorities took him in custody, but he was past relief, and has since died. He stated that he had been with the Indians during the past fifteen years; that he had relations somewhere in Pennsylvania, whom he was now returning to see.

—A little white girl, five years of age, while playing near the railroad track in Nashville, Tennessee, on the 9th, became so helpless through fear of an approaching train, that she sank down upon the track and was cut directly in two. Her mother came up in a few minutes in search of her, and the sight of the mangled remains was the first intimation she had of the dreadful loss she sustained. The child's father was killed by the cars near the same spot about two years ago.

COE'S DYSPEPSIA CURE is prepared by the originator of the celebrated Cough Balsam. Mr. Coe has never prepared a medicinal article for public and general use that has stood the test of time and severe trials and has not been certified to cure. Will you who are suffering from dyspepsia, liver complaint, nervous debility, cholera morbus, dysentery, and general debility of the whole system, try but a single bottle in all these cases. Our own knowledge of its merits the united testimony of all who have used it, and the recommendations of druggists and others in neighbors, your duty to yourself, friends, your children and the general public, as well as to the medicinal remedy, as certain as you live. Try it, it will not cost you much, and by trying you be benefited. If what we say is incorrect—if our statements concerning its wonderful virtues are not borne out by facts—if it does not say that the operation of this medicine is instantaneous and perfectly wonderful—we will publish the fact in every paper in the country, and retire from the field, admitting that we are incapacited to compete with honest preparations which should be entitled to your confidence.

FOR SALE.—We offer for sale the Valuable Lot of Ground
Occupied by the undersigned, containing acres, situate on the Allegheny river, at the foot of Taylor street, Fifth township, just outside the city limits. This lot has a river frontage of 240 feet, good landing, with the right of filling into the river about 200 feet from low water mark, which would make a level and safe building ground. For Iron Works, Steel Works, Foundries, Saw Mills or other manufacturing purposes, cannot be excelled. Terms made satisfactory. We also offer for sale a large lot of brick, damaged shafting, pulleys, hangers, engine boilers, machinery, boiler iron, &c.

VALUABLE
AT AUCTION.
ON SATURDAY AFTERNOON, July 28th, at 4 o'clock, on the premises, in rear of Penn and Mount Washington, near Bailey's coal railroad, will be sold, three improved and three unimproved lots, fronting on Main, in M. Daly's plan. The house property consists of lots of 1st in acre, in the highest state of cultivation, and contains a profusion of choice fruit, of the choicest character and variety, and on which is erected a Frame Cottage House, containing eight rooms, kitchen and cellar. Front house 2½ stories high, containing seven rooms and cellar. Each of the above houses is supplied with never-failing spring of water. Also, a Frame Stable, with room for two horses and carriages, and a large Frame Barn, with room for 20 tons of hay. Also, a Frame Shop on one of the Property. On the adjoining lot, which is of good size, is erected two small Frame Houses, each containing four rooms, and a large ground-lot on in fruit trees and shrubbery.
Also, on Grant's hill, a good lot, 25 by 120 ft., at present in the rear of a two-story brick dwelling, and used as a garden. The lot lies easy of access, and is one of the most desirable building lots in the city.
Also, on the Brownsville Turnpike, Lots Nos. 5 and 6, twenty-five feet front by one hundred and forty deep, with good Frame House, containing six rooms, and all necessary out-buildings, in the neighborhood of two acres, which is at present worth as a building quarry, and will be worth a good deal more. Excellent spring of never-failing water. This entire property is within a few minutes' walk of the city, and possesses every requisite for comfort and convenience, and the location is one of the most healthy in the vicinity. For further information, inquire of the undersigned on the premises, or at the office of
T. A. McCLELLAND, Auctioneer.
E. DALY will be on the premises to-morrow, (Thursday,) to sell, and show the grounds.

A New Association Organized.

We are to have another philanthropical society added to the large number that already exist here, and one which will doubtless result in much good to those whom it is intended to benefit. The object of the new organization is to ameliorate the moral, physical and spiritual condition of the convicts confined in our local prisons. The friends of the movement held a meeting in the chamber of the Board of Trade yesterday morning, at ten o'clock. In view of the fact that there was no public notice given of the meeting, the attendance was not large, and was chiefly composed of gentlemen who have been well known to our citizens as friends of moral reform. The meeting was organized by calling Major William Frew to the chair, and electing R. S. Davis, Esq., Secretary.

On motion it was agreed to organize an Association, to be called the "Allegheny County Prison Society."

With the exception of the preamble and one or two articles, the Constitution of the "Philadelphia Society for Alleviating the Miseries of Public Prisons" was adopted. Rev. John Douglas, D. D., was appointed to prepare a suitable preamble and report at a future meeting.

Several gentlemen present stated that many of our citizens who cannot give the matter their personal attention, are so thoroughly convinced of the importance of the movement that they desire to contribute largely of their means, in order to further its objects.

It was moved and agreed to that a nominating committee should be appointed to nominate officers and an "Acting Committee." The chairman appointed Robert Orr, Esq., Capt. Phillips and Capt. Ewing as the members of the committee.

After further conference on matters pertaining to the state and condition of our prisons, the association adjourned to meet in the same place on next Tuesday morning, the 31st inst., at 10 o'clock.

Oil City Affairs.

That portion of Oil City on the east side of the Creek, recently burned, has been almost entirely rebuilt, and the buildings are far superior to those destroyed. The fire occurred on the 26th of May last, and in the conflagration, fully two hundred buildings were destroyed. Among these were comprised nearly the whole number of business houses located on that side of the Creek. What better proof could be asked of the business merits of the place, and the indomitable energy of the people, than the fact that though two months have not yet elapsed, the greater proportion of the buildings destroyed by the fire, have been rebuilt in superior style? In a few months, Oil City will be the terminus of no less than three railroads, the A. & G. W., already finished, the Oil City & Pithole, which connects with the Warren & Franklin at Oleopolis, and they with the Philadelphia & Erie at Warren, and the Oil City & Petroleum Centre road, which connects with the Oil Creek Railroad at Petroleum Centre. The Allegheny Valley road, connecting Pittsburgh and Oil City, is being pushed to completion as fast as possible, and the Jamestown & Franklin road, which will be extended to this place, will be finished to Franklin by the 1st of November next. No place in the country will be better supplied with good railway facilities than Oil City. Surely no one can be doubtful of the permanency and prosperous future of Oil City, as the great commercial centre of the Venango Oil Region. The completion of the bridge over the Allegheny at an early date, will be of material assistance, both in building up Venango City, and increasing the business of our own place.

The following wells are reported to have been interjected last week by the application of Colonel Roberts' torpedoes: Doddsworth well on Boyd Farm, 50 barrels; Archer well, No. 1, on Tarr Farm, 75 barrels; also another on same farm, 45 barrels; Hyskill well on Story Farm, 50 barrels; Hunter well on Story Farm, 50 barrels; Master well on Wash McClintock Farm, 50 barrels.

A Paradise in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Eloise Hunt, of Heiner's Run, Clinton county, Pa., writes thus. "My home has been for six years in a little rocky basin shut in on every side by the Alleghenies, without a neighbor, a church, or a school, seeing no human face for weeks, aye, even months sometimes, except those of my husband and child. Living thus I have come to love in a strange absorbing way all that nature has thrown around me. Earth with its varied growth of trees and vines, plants and mosses, rocks and pale cloud-like clouds, blue sky and stars, everything is beautiful to me; even the dead leaves, the old decayed trees and bare rocks are beloved. Think, then, how inexpressibly dear the living trees and flowers and moving water. I have tame trout, six yards from the door, that leap above the water to catch bits of meat from my fingers. The pheasants make their nests in sight of the house, and sometimes the male bird is seen drumming on the old log only a few rods up the mountain side. I have planted wild flowers round my doors, and in summer, the humming birds go through the open house on their visit to the flowers. Strangers from the world have said: 'How can you exist in this dreary place?' Their eyes cannot see as mine; nor can they hear any of the joyous sounds I hear, and so I simply tell them what they comprehend: 'it is my necessity.' My place, which is so lonely to others, is not pleasant to me that I have named it Paradise, and here I will teach my son a love of truth, purity and beauty."

Allegheny County Prison Society.

A meeting of many of our most influential citizens was held yesterday in the Board of Trade Rooms, in order to organize an Allegheny County Prison Society. The meeting was called to order by electing Major William Frew Chairman, and the appointment of R. S. Davis, Esq., as Secretary. A general interchange of opinion concerning the moral character of our prison institutions was indulged in, all appearing to think that there was a vast field of labor for the proposed society. A constitution and set of by-laws were adopted, and the society declared organized. A committee to nominate officers was appointed, after which the meeting adjourned to reassemble at the same place on Tuesday morning next, at ten o'clock. It is to be hoped that liberal encouragement will be extended to the gentlemen who are engaged in this praiseworthy undertaking. Such an association will work a vast deal of good, and it cannot be too highly appreciated by a community interested in the unfortunate criminal's moral or social welfare.

Rather Despondent.

The Stubenville Herald in speaking of business in that section, takes occasion to say as follows: The removal of the Machine Shops of the Steubenville & Indiana R. R. to this city to Dennison, curtailing the amount of money put in circulation every month some $12,000—the prevailing' depression of business all over the country, together with the excessive heat and the absence from the vicinity of farmers, engaged in harvesting, have conspired to cause a marked stagnation in business in our city, and afford an opportunity for grass to start upon some of our streets, and to grow unmolested. We're not despondent, however, but have faith that "better days are coming." We never "croak," that part of the programme is filled to satisfaction by the inhabitants of the Second ward frog pond.

Nuisances.

John Meyerhoffer was before Alderman Morrow yesterday, charged with placing filth and rubbish on Pennsylvania avenue, in contradistinction to a city ordinance providing against the same. This is the second time the accused has been before the above magistrate, to answer a similar charge within the last two weeks. Having been fined ten dollars on the former occasion, he was allowed to depart on the payment of the costs, giving a solemn pledge to sin no more. Street Commissioner Flinn was of course the complainant.

Smith, Bungery and Company were fined five dollars and costs by the same Alderman, for obstructing the sidewalk in front of their place of business on Grant street. Commissioner Flinn, as in the former case, was the prosecutor.

Soldiers' and Sailors' League.

—A meeting of the Soldiers' and Sailors' League, of Ward, were held at their hall, in the Odd Fellows building, on Monday evening. The League has been but recently organized, but is in a flourishing condition. They have chosen the following officers to preside over their deliberations: Gen. S. B. M. Young, President; P. C. Dorrington, Vice President; Homer S. McGraw, Secretary; Wm. Graham, Assistant, Col. J. W. Ballentine, Treasurer, and Asa Broad, Guardian. The meeting was addressed by Col. T. M. Bayne, private J. G. Brown, of the old 13th, and the Rev. John E. McGaw.

Attempt at Sharp Practice.

—A. Jones, architect and builder, of Meadville got a discount on Monday at the Merchants National Bank for $50, on his own note, endorsed with the name of a well-known citizen. The latter coming into the bank soon after, was shown the note and at once disclaimed all knowledge of it. Jones was at once sent for, and was made to disgorge the money he had received. He was then permitted to leave, as he avowed to have authority for using his friend's name, which the latter denied.

Accident.

—On Monday afternoon a man named Printer had his foot severely crushed in the machinery of a hoisting apparatus in a building on Liberty street. He was taken to his residence, in the Sixth ward, where medical aid was summoned. At last accounts he was recovering, amputation not being deemed necessary.

Paid the Costs.

—David Sands paid the costs, yesterday, in a suit brought against him before Alderman Morrow by J. B. Williams, the Board of Health officer, for maintaining a nuisance, in the shape of an out-house, on his premises, in Virgin alley.

Special Caution.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has become so popular that various parties have put out articles calling them Mrs. Winslow's. Please take notice that the Mrs. Winslow of the Soothing Syrup is not connected with any other article. jy11-s&w

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

FROM EUROPE.

Additional News by the Scotia—Russia Desires no Change in the State of Affairs—Warlike Preparations of Russia—Italy to Continue Offensive Operations—Conditions of the Armistice Stipulated by Prussia and Italy—Prague Occupied by the Prussians—France Arming. Her Iron-Clads—Emperor of Austria Making Concessions to Hungary.

NEW YORK, July 24.—The foreign papers contain the following additional details of war news:

The Moscow Gazette, of July 13th, contains the following highly important news: Russia does not desire any change in the present state of things in Europe. If Austria and Prussia will render themselves the tools of France, Russia can no longer depend on them as heretofore. Venetia, without Rome, would constitute no progress for Italy. The submission of Austria to France is to her disadvantage, dangerous to the European equilibrium. The supremacy of Prussia in Northern Germany is like that of Russia in the Baltic. Russia's love of peace does not sanction efforts to attain the supreme power. England's interest may make her seek, alliance with France and Austria in the Eastern question, but the dictatorship of France in Italy and Germany cannot meet with her support.

A dispatch from Lumberg, of July 14, says: The Gazette Narodowa of that town announces that all soldiers on furlough in Russia have been called in, and says every day military trains start from Warsaw to the frontier of Silesia and Gallicia. Hessian troops are marching from Paddila to Bessarabia.

A dispatch from Florence, of July 13, says: The Court of Berlin has declared to the Italian Cabinet that an armistice on the basis of the cession of Venetia is inadmissable.

The Italian Government, in its reply, is said to have announced its resolution to continue offensive operations against the Austrian Empire without relaxation, in conformity with the engagements mutually entered into with Prussia and Italy, until both these powers shall have obtained from Austria conciliatory terms for the concession of peace.

The Nazione, of Florence, of July 12th, publishes a statement of the conditions for an armistice stipulated by Prussia and Italy. The former Power demands the exclusion of Austria from the Germanic Confederation. The Nazione adds: This was admitted by France, who undertook to obtain the assent of the Vienna Cabinet to the evacuation by Austria of the Austrian province occupied by Prussia during the armistice.

On the part of Italy, the conditions were the cession of the Italian territories under Austrian dominion, including the Italian proportion of the Tyrol. Austria was to make the cession directly to Italy, without compensation, and was not to raise the Roman question during the negotiations for peace.

It appears that these conditions have been found inadmissible at Vienna, and that the Austrian Government has resolved to once more try the fortune of war.

The Prussians occupied Prague on the 8th, garrisoning the place with 5,000 troops.

The Bavarians, who say that the engagement near Kissengen had no decisive result, are concentrating near Schwerafurt to give battle again.

Vienna dispatches state that the Austrian forces in Venetia are being withdrawn from before the Italians, but the fortresses remain strongly garrisoned for defence, without support from the army.

The La France of the 12th says the attack of the Italians upon Venetia, renders Prince Napoleon's mission futile, and it has been abandoned.

France is rapidly arming the iron-clads to be sent to Venice.

The Emperor of Austria is making concessions to Hungary. He announces that the conscription is suspended, and calls upon the Hungarians to volunteer.

Goldwin Smith has resigned the professorship of history at Oxford University.

Sir Bulwer Lytton is gazetted as Lord Lytton.

The French Ambassador to Berlin had arrived at the King of Prussia's headquarters. It is understood whether the Austrians will hold the line from Olmutz to Brunn and fight another battle.

The Prussian headquarters on the 12th were three miles from Brunn.

The battle near Kissengen was between General Manteuffel's Prussian corps and the Bavarians.

The Bavarians defended their position ten hours, and finally retired to take a position on the Maine.

The Prussian loss was light, and the Bavarian loss heavy, including the commanding General Ziller, killed.

Victor Emanuel was at Ferrara.

The formation of the Hungarian Legion was progressing, and Kossuth had gone to consult Garribaldi upon a plan of operations.

FROM WASHINGTON.

General Dix Appointed Minister to the Hague—French Troops Arriving at Vera Cruz—Secretary Stanton Not to Resign—Nominations of Governors Holden and Johnson Rejected—Number of Union and Rebel Prisoners Captured.

NEW YORK, July 24.—The morning papers contain the following specials from Washington. General Sickles having declined the appointment to the Hague, the name of General Dix was sent to the Senate and confirmed.

General Sheridan reports that French troops are still arriving at Vera Cruz. He says his observations convince him that Napoleon is not sincere in the promise to evacuate Mexico.

The names of Colonels Pelgayer, Montgomery, Hinds and Riggin, have been sent to the Senate for promotion to Brevet Brigadier Generals. The Senate has withdrawn the name of James B. Fry, from the list of Brevets. It has been sent for the commission of Brevet Major General.

The Senate will not agree to an increase of pay to the Department clerks. The prospect of passing the army bill this session is very poor.

The Tribune's special says: There is no immediate prospect of Mr. Stanton's resignation or being ousted.

The nomination of Provisional Governors Holden and Johnson as foreign ministers have been rejected by the Senate.

It is stated that the President will not go to Chicago to attend the inauguration of the Douglas monument.

The Secretary of War reports the number of prisoners held, and released on parole during the war as follows: Number of Union prisoners South, 20,940; number of rebel prisoners North, 200,000. Number of Union prisoners died, 22,576; number of rebel prisoners died, 26,431.

The value of rations issued to refugees in Mississippi, Arkansas, and Indian Territory during the last three months was $2,687,369. For the corresponding period last year, $5,305,709. Great destitution and suffering still exists.

Riot at Cairo—Three Negroes Killed.

CAIRO, Ill., July 23.—A riot between whites and blacks occurred on the 21st instant, caused by a Sergeant of the Indian Territory colored regiment coming to the Soldiers' Home for the purpose of enlisting recruits. Three of four negroes were killed. Several whites are missing, but it is not known whether they are killed or not.

The Cholera in New York.

NEW YORK, July 24.—Nine new cases of cholera, four of which terminated fatally, occurred in this city, and twenty-one cases and seven deaths in Brooklyn yesterday. Additional cases are also reported from Hart's and Governor's Islands.

Murder in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, July 25.—Thos. H. Corry, clerk at the Spencer House, was shot yesterday by a lawyer of this city named J. C. Healy. Corry died this morning.

All descriptions of Government Bonds bought and sold on liberal terms.

London and Continental Exchange sold at New York rates.

Gold, Silver and Coupons bought at highest rates, and Gold Drafts issued on New York.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

TUESDAY, July 24, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as received by Mr. P. R. Mertz, were as follows: Gold, 150⅞@150⅜; 1881s, 109; old 5-20s, 105@107; new ditto, 105@105¾; 10-40s, 98¾; 7-30s 103@103¾. Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, 84½; Fort Wayne, 98½; Erie, 63¾; Western Telegraph, 53.

Notwithstanding there are large amounts of capital lying idle, government bonds are dull and weak, excepting 5-20s which seem to hold their own. Seven-Thirties are freely offered at [illegible] rates, but are still considered too much inflated by capitalists generally. At present quotations, 7-30s can be bought and converted into 5-20s at a small margin.

Oil securities keep steady in the London market, [illegible] could seem to indicate a decline, rather than an advance. Foreign bankers are said to realize on their bonds and draw against them, though it is predicted that exchange must advance to a specie shipping point, so soon as the market is cleared of the stock of merchants bills.

The continued war rumors and probable interference of France, Russia and England, leading to a general conflict at arms, have a tendency to keep up the gold premium and unsettle all values of merchandise. Furthermore, war in Western Europe will cause large amounts of fancy goods, wines etc., etc., to be sent to this country. The crops in Europe are reported very promising, and the export demand for Breadstuffs it is thought will not be large. Petroleum, an important item in our summer and fall exports, seems to be almost unsaleable in the European seaports, and this deprives us of paying a large amount of our imports in kind.

—The Titusville Herald, of Monday, says:

The petroleum markets are still on the rise. Oil on the creek to-day was sold for $2.75. Most of the producers were asking $3.

The hope of better news from Europe by every steamer has raised their confidence, and the general opinion appears to be that they can hold out until next month's rates, when the Pittsburgh buyers will be in the market.

The supply on hand being very limited, most of them are making preparations to hold for thirty days at least, which they consider necessary to allow time for the surplus stock now already forwarded to the Eastern markets to be cleared off, and to prevent the price falling to a merely nominal figure.

—Says the New York Tribune:

The exchange of 7-30s for 5-20s proceeds slowly, and this plan of funding does not promise great success. As 5-20s now sell, the party holding 7-30s loses [illegible] per cent by exchanging, if he desires to sell the gold bonds. The short time the 7-30s have to run before they can be exchanged for money gives them great value with parties desiring short investment, and they will not be funded unless better terms than are now given are made. If a moderate commission was allowed a general agent, a large amount of currency debt could be exchanged for gold bearing stock with advantage to the government.

—The Philadelphia Press says:

The table of exports from Philadelphia for the first six months of this year shows a large increase as compared with the first six months of last. In the last half year we have exported 9,837,[illegible] gallons of petroleum, worth $3,[illegible], against 5,9[illegible] gallons, worth $3[illegible], in the previous year. The gain in gallons is 9,297,[illegible] and in value $[illegible]. At the same time, the increase of business over the four Schuylkill and Lehigh anthracite fields for the first six months of 1866 amounts to 1,420,[illegible] tons. It is believed that the same prosperity has fallen to almost every branch of our trade.

—The redemption of one-year certificates at the Sub-Treasury is small, and this class of obligations is now nearly retired. The next step will be the payment of the temporary loan, toward which the Government has a balance in New York of full $[illegible] upon which it should save interest. As the Treasury, from internal revenue, will now be in possession of a large surplus over its daily expenses, there seems no good reason why substantial payment should not be made upon the temporary loans, and the rate be reduced to four per cent upon this class of indebtedness.

—The New York Times, of Monday, says:

The import entries for the past week, including the dry goods return in our last paper, amount to $6,[illegible], against the total entries of $6,[illegible] same week last year. The export clearances of domestic produce amount to $4,[illegible], against $4,847,[illegible] same week last year. The export of specie amounts to $[illegible], against $[illegible] same week last year. The customs for the week are $2,[illegible]. The receipts of cotton, coastwise and by railroad, are [illegible] bales. The number of emigrant passengers arrived during the week [illegible].

New York Stock and Money Market.

NEW YORK, July 24.—The ease in Money continues, and the demand is quite moderate. Call loans range from 4 to 5 per cent., with more doing at the latter rate. Prime discounts range from 5½ to 6½ per cent. The Gold market was very steady towards the close of the day, at 150[illegible], but the dealings were not active. The market for Exchange is quiet, but it was firmer towards the close. The quotations were as follows: London bankers, [illegible]; London bankers, thirty days, [illegible]; Paris, long, [illegible]; Paris, short, [illegible]; Bremen, 78[illegible]; Hamburg, [illegible]; Berlin and Bologne, [illegible].

The Government securities were quiet this afternoon, and rather lower on the 7-30 notes. The following were the closing prices: Registered, 1881, 109¾; coupons, 1881, 109[illegible]; 5-20s, registered, 1862, 10[illegible]; 5-20 coupons, 1862, [illegible]; 5-20 coupons, 1864, 10[illegible]; 5-20 do., 1865, 10[illegible]; 10-40s, registered, [illegible]; do. coupons, [illegible]; June do., 10[illegible]; July do., 10[illegible].

At the last open Board, the Railway market was lower on Erie, but quite firm on the balance of the list. There has been rather more animation and activity this afternoon on the miscellaneous stocks. The following were the closing prices at 4:30 P. M.: Ohio Certificates, 2[illegible]; Canton, 5[illegible]; Cumberland Coal Company, 4[illegible]; Quicksilver Mining Company, 4[illegible]; Boston Water Power, 31[illegible]; do. preferred, 12[illegible]; New York Central, 10[illegible]; Erie, 6[illegible]; Hudson River, [illegible]; Reading, 10[illegible]; Michigan Central, [illegible]; Michigan Southern, 8[illegible]; Illinois Central scrip, 11[illegible]; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 84[illegible].

The market for Petroleum and Mining shares was dull, but steady this afternoon. Mining Stocks—Consolidated, 275; Downieville, 12; Gunnell Gold, 1[illegible]; Smith & Parr, 93. Petroleum Stocks—United States, 23; Bennehoff Run, 3[illegible]; Buchanan, 25; Oil Creek, 35; Pithole Creek, [illegible].

At the four o'clock open board the following were the principal sales: Mariposa preferred [illegible]; Western Union Telegraph, 5[illegible]; Erie, 6[illegible]; New York Central, 10[illegible]; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, [illegible]; Michigan Southern and Northern [illegible]; Chicago and Rock Island, 1[illegible]; Chicago and North Western, 3[illegible]; Chicago and North Western preferred, 6[illegible]; Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago, ex-dividend, 9[illegible]; Gold closed at 150[illegible].

Money easy at 4@5 per cent. for call loans. Sterling dull and heavy at 10[illegible]. Gold a shade lower, opening at 150, advancing to 150½, and closing at 150⅜. Governments dull and rather easier. Freights to Liverpool steady. Stocks better. Chicago & Alton, 1[illegible]; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 9[illegible]; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 85[illegible]; Erie, 63; New York Central, 10[illegible]; Western Union Telegraph, 54[illegible]; Mariposa preferred, 2[illegible]; Quicksilver, 4[illegible]; Boston Water Power, 3[illegible]; 1881s, 10[illegible]; 5-20 coupons, 1865, 10[illegible].

The Post's money article says: The Loan market is easy at 4@5 per cent. Commercial paper inactive, at 5@6. Stock market opened dull and closed strong, without much activity. After the Board, New York Central sold at 10[illegible]; Erie, 6[illegible]; Michigan Central, 106[illegible]; Illinois Central, 11[illegible]. Foreign Exchange inactive and weak.

The Commercial's money article says: The market is again weak and very dull. Some of the brokers are quietly taking up all the stocks offered at the current decline in expectation of making an early profit. Governments are quiet. The further advance of Five-Twenties in London has strengthened old bonds, the price closing at the Board at 10[illegible]. Ten-Forties are ½ lower. Seven-Thirties are still depressed, each issue being ½ lower. Sterling Exchange is quiet. Leading drawers are asking 10[illegible] for sixty days bills, but there is a good supply of bills drawn against Five-Twenties, and it is not easy to sell any large amounts at better than 10[illegible]. Money is very abundant. Banks and bankers hold large balances, for which they are seeking borrowers, mostly at four per cent. on call. Discounts are still extremely dull. There is very little paper on the market. The notes, however, are steady, at 5@7 per cent. for prime names. Gold is steady at about the rates of yesterday. The short interest proves not to be sufficiently large to disturb the regular course of the market. Loans are made flat at 1-32 per cent. per day.

Receipts of Flour and Grain at Tide Water.

The quantity of flour, wheat, corn and barley left at tidewater during the second week in July, in the years 1865 and 1866, was as follows:

	Flour.	Wheat.	Corn.	Barley.
1865	30,200	276,300	[illegible]	[illegible]
1866	27,600	88,200	1,065,300	28,000
	Dec. 3,400	Dec. 187,200	Inc. 70[illegible]	Inc. 2[illegible]

The aggregate quantity of the same articles left at tidewater from the commencement of navigation to the 14th of July, inclusive, during the years 1865 and 1866, was as follows:

	Flour.	Wheat.	Corn.	Barley.
1865	[illegible]	2,172,900	2,2[illegible]	156,[illegible]
1866	99,[illegible]	1,187,000	7,764,100	100,[illegible]
	Dec. [illegible]	985,[illegible]	Inc. 5,[illegible]	45,[illegible]

By reducing the wheat to flour, the quantity of the latter left at tidewater this year, compared with the corresponding period last year, shows a decrease of [illegible] bbls flour.

Buffalo Market.

BUFFALO, July 24.—Flour quiet. Wheat: [illegible] No. 1 Milwaukee Spring, at [illegible]. Corn; sales of 100,000 bu. [illegible] for No. 2, and [illegible] for No. 1. [illegible] Oats dull and [illegible]. [illegible] Chicago [illegible] offered and [illegible]. Lard, at 20@[illegible]c. Whisky [illegible].

Baltimore Market.

BALTIMORE, July 24.—Flour quiet; new southern [illegible]. Wheat steady. Corn firm; white, [illegible]; yellow, dull. Provisions heavy. Coffee [illegible]. Whisky dull; Pennsylvania, $2,[illegible].

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, July 24, 1866.

There are new characteristics in the produce markets worthy of special notice. There is next to nothing doing except in a retail way the transactions in the leading articles being very much restricted, while prices have undergone no special change.

GRAIN—Wheat continues dull but unchanged; sale of 1 car Club at $2,15. Oats not coming in so freely, although the supply is fully up to the demand; small sales from store at 54 to 55. Sale of 1 car prime Shelled Corn at 78. Nothing doing in Rye or Barley.

PROVISIONS—There is a moderate jobbing demand for Bacon, but the market is devoid of excitement, and prices are unchanged. We continue to quote at 17 to 17½ for Shoulders; 19½ to 20 for Ribbed Sides; 23 for Plain Hams, and 25 for Sugar Cured do. Lard is dull at 21½ to 22. Mess Pork dull.

FLOUR—Is quiet the demand being light and entirely local, while prices have undergone no quotable change. Sales of Spring Wheat at $10 to $10,75, and Winter Wheat at $12 to $12,50—there are some choice brands of Minnesota Spring Wheat Flour which are selling at $11,25 to $11,50. Rye Flour is dull at $6,25 to 6,50.

BUTTER—Is in better demand and higher, with but little in market. Packet is selling at 23 to 25, while prime fresh firkin Butter sold to-day at 28, and may be quoted at 28@30.

EGGS—There is a good demand and limited stock; sales reported at 22@23 for fresh packed.

CHEESE—Is dull and unchanged at 15@16 for Western Reserve; 16@17 for Hamburg, and 20@21 for prime New York Goshen.

POTATOES—Scarce and a shade firmer but unchanged, at $[illegible] to $5 per bbl.

MILL FEED—[illegible] sale of 1 car Middlings at $1,80.

GREEN APPLES—May be quoted dull at $4 to $5 per bbl, for fair to prime.

OIL—Sales No. 1 Lard at $1,78@1,80.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, July 24, 1866.

CRUDE—The market for Crude continues dull and neglected, as compared with the latter part of last week, the demand having fell off considerably, and holders are more anxious to sell, on the spot as well as to arrive, though, as yet, no material concessions have been made in order to effect sales. There are holders, however, who refused to accept 12½ on Friday and Saturday, asking 13, and the same parties are now willing to sell at what they were offered then, but find it pretty hard work to come across buyers at that figure. Sales of 1000 bbls in bulk, on the spot, (41 to 42 gravity) at 12½; 100 at 12¼, bbls returned; 125 bbls at 17, packages included; and 1200 bbls, to arrive, on private terms. The demand at present is confined mostly to spot oil, there being a kind of aversion on the part of buyers against contracting for future delivery.

REFINED—There was very little inquiry for bonded oil to-day, and we have but a single transaction to record, 500 bbls to be delivered in Philadelphia between the 1st and 15th of August, at 38½. On Friday and Saturday the market was completely flooded with orders to contract both for present and future delivery at full prices, while to-day the offers were very limited, and buyers refuse to operate unless concessions are made. There is one consolation in regard to the present dullness and stagnation, and that is the fact that it could not have occurred at a better time. Our refiners, generally, are sold close up, and many of them for sixty and even ninety days hence. Free Oil is dull and neglected, though nominally unchanged.

ARRIVALS—The receipts of oil continue light. The following arrivals were reported to-day:

Jas. Wilkins	139	T. McMichael	40
Fisher & Bro	1[illegible]	W. P. Logan	1[illegible]
Penns. Salt Co	400	C. Ecky	50

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, July 24, 1866.

CATTLE.

The supply of cattle was somewhat larger this week than for several weeks past, reaching about 850 to 900 head, and with only a moderate demand, the market ruled a little dull and dragged considerably towards the close, several small lots being left over unsold. As compared with last week, prices were a shade lower, and particularly was this the case in regard to common and inferior cattle, though the best sold a fraction below former quotations. Included in the offerings this week we can report a drove of 38 head from Texas, the first arrival of cattle from that State since the outbreak of the rebellion; indeed, we are not aware of any Texas cattle ever having been offered in this market before, though there may have been. They are reported as being very tough, the most prominent part being their horns, and it is said that the purchaser intends to dispose of them to comb-makers.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

There was a very good supply of sheep on sale this week, and while the market was regarded as being hard, it would doubtless have been harder had it not being for two or three parties buying several bunches for shipment. Runyan bought an extra drove of Washington County Sheep, averaging [illegible] lbs, at 6,17, [illegible] Auil & Lafferty [illegible] head, averaging about [illegible] lbs, at 4[illegible]; Hoffman to Auil & Lafferty [illegible] head [illegible] Emerick & Co. sold at Sheep and Lambs to Hines, averaging about 45 lbs, at $2,50 head. As will be seen by reference to the sales, prices ranged from 4,37½ to 6,17 for Sheep, while Lambs may be quoted at from $2 to $3 per head, as to quality, size and condition.

SWINE.

There is next to nothing doing in this class of stock at these yards. Some few small sales in a retail way to butchers, but the transactions are unimportant, and prices nominal at 10 to 10½ cents, gross, for fair to good averages.

REPORTED SALES OF CATTLE.

Glass & Lafferty sold 18 head of prime Illinois steers to Orr, averaging 1175, at 8,25; retailed 15 head at 6 to 8½—had 18 head left over unsold.

Rothchilds & Eckert sold to B. Gray 20 head of good cattle, averaging 1200, at 7; 38 head of rough Texas cattle to Hines, averaging about 950 lbs, at 5; 20 head to Hilderbrand, averaging 1000 lbs, at 7; retailed 20 head at 6@8.

Myers & Needy to Barney Grey 51 head of prime Ohio steers, averaging about 1250 lbs, at 8,08 per head; 13 head of stock cattle to Chamberlain at 6; 15 head of good cattle to Andy Aekley at 8 cts; retailed 78 head at 5.50 to 8.00.

Hazlewood & Dolan sold 16 head of good cattle to Goodman, averaging 1125, at 7.85; retailed 25 head at 7 to 8.2.

Haas & Crouse sold Barney Grey 36 head of good cattle, averaging about 1200 lbs, at 8½; retailed 23 head. Merrick & Doud retailed 18 head.

Greenwald & Kahn retailed 69 head—mostly good cattle—at 7½@8½. Caines retailed 19 head at 6.75 to 7.85; P. Hartman 19 head at 7@8. Marks & Traurman 93 head at [illegible]@8½. McAllister to Orr 35 head, averaging about 1150—unable to learn price. Horn to Shamberg 10 head common cattle at 4.50 to 6.25. Greer to McAllister 43 head, averaging 1150, at 7⅜.

New York Cattle Market.

NEW YORK, July 24.—The current prices for the week at all the markets are as follows:

BEEF CATTLE—First quality, per head, $17,00@18,00; fair to good, $15@17; common, $14@15; inferior, $12@14.

COWS AND CALVES—Extra, per head, $85@95; first quality, $75@80; ordinary, $65@75; common, $50@60; inferior, $30@45.

VEAL CALVES—First quality, per pound, 11@12c; ordinary, 10@11c; common, 9@10c; inferior, 8@9c.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Extra, per head, $7@8; prime quality, $6@$7; ordinary, $5@$6; common, $4@4,50; inferior, $3,75@4,00.

SWINE—Heavy corn-fed, per pound, 11¼@11½; light and medium, 10½@11.

The market for beef cattle was firm this week, the supply being only fair, while the weather was favorable and the demand active, at an advance of ½c per pound. Prices vary from 12 to 17½@18c, including inferior to strictly prime. The average quality of the offerings was very good, many of the cattle being good to prime, while comparatively few were really common. The bulk of the offerings went at from 15 to 17½c, and scarcely any remained unsold at twelve o'clock to-day. Veal was in fair demand at our quotations. Sheep and Lambs were in good demand at our quotations above.

The receipts of all stocks at all the yards for this and last week were as follows: Beeves, 5,079; Cows, 107; Veal Calves, 1,062; Sheep and Lambs, 13,[illegible]; Swine, 8,[illegible]. The total last week was [illegible] beeves, cows, 12[illegible]; veal calves, 1,662; sheep and lambs, 19,[illegible]; swine, 69,762.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was swelling slowly at this point last evening, with about six and a half feet in the channel by the marks. The rise is again in the Monongahela, as the Allegheny is reported falling all the way up. The weather continues clear and pleasant, and all that could possibly be desired for the transaction of out-door business.

The Mary Erwin, from Cincinnati, with a moderate cargo, is the only transient arrival we have to report. She is in command of Capt. Charles Beers, late of the Rose Hambleton, and, as will be seen by card, she will leave for St. Louis and all intermediate points this evening. Capt. Beers desires us to state that he will leave as announced without fail.

The Forest City left for Parkersburg on time yesterday with a good trip, and the Bayard will leave on Thursday morning. The Arabian, for Cincinnati, and the Keaton, for St. Louis, left last evening with good trips. The latter boat was loaded down to the guards.

The Fayette and Chieftain cleared for Brownsville last evening, and the Elector and Gallatin are the regular packets for this evening, leaving promptly at 5 o'clock.

As will be seen by reference to our advertising columns, the steamer Stray is offered for sale by the United States Marshal. The sale is to take place on the 6th of August.

The towboats Petrel and Albion left during the day for points below with more coal, and it was reported that the Brilliant would also get off last evening. The Petrel stuck a part of her tow on Glass House, but subsequently got off and went on her way rejoicing. Considering the amount of coal that has gone out and the great number of towboats and barges, there has been but very few accidents. It is estimated that there have been nearly three millions bushels of coal have left here during the past three days, and yet, so far as we have been able to learn, but five or six barges have been sunk, and probably not more than a dozen grounded.

The New State, we see it stated, has withdrawn from the Wheeling and Parkersburg trade, and resumed her place in the Wheeling and Pittsburgh trade. She was advertised to leave Wheeling yesterday, and will probably be found in port here this morning.

The steamer Franklin of the "Union" better known perhaps as one of the "old" line Pittsburgh and Brownsville packets, took out a large number of the inmates of "Sanitary Soldiers Home," on pleasure excursion. Capt. Jacobs, President of the line, deserves great credit for his kind invitation to those maimed patriots, to make the trip free of charge, and he will not be forgotten by these brave men.

A Wheeling paper of Monday says: Last night as the tow-boat Picket was coming down the river with six coal barges, the flats came in contact with a snag near Glass House Riffle. The barges all broke loose from the boat, and two were sunk. Before the boat had passed the city the pilot was "master of the situation," and had recovered the four floating flats and secured them to his boat.

All the boats of the Johnsonville Packet Company at St. Louis, were sold on Thursday last under a second deed of trust, held by the United Savings Institution. The sale being a sort of flank movement to insure title, the whole concern was knocked down to the Savings Institution for $1,500. It was announced at the opening of the sale that the purchaser would be liable under the first deed of trust and lien claims, whatever they might be. The Sheriff's sale of same boats takes place soon.

The steamship Sarah, lately fitted up at Cairo for a New Orleans and Gulf steamer, struck a snag at Island No. 19, on Thursday last, and sunk in fourteen feet of water. The water is over her main deck.

STEAMBOATS.

SEMPER PARATUS.
PRO BO NO PUBLICO.
Yet they say 'tis a heinous crime the way business is conducted. Some say it is murdering the trade. Others say it is against his own interests. We don't believe it. Let us see what the true state of affairs is. The truth is this: That there is a new establishment, neatly fitted up, at No. 87 Market street, Pittsburgh, over which W. G. MAHAFFEY presides, and in which boots and shoes are sold at prices so low as to astonish [illegible]. Hear me while I give you the prices of a few articles, while all other articles are sold correspondingly low. Ladies' Congress Lasting gaiters selling at $1.50; Ladies' Sewed Morocco Boots at $2.00; Men's Congress Lasting Gaiters at $3. [illegible] children's Slippers at 60c; Children's Morocco Shoes at 50c. A large lot of gent's prime fine calf balmorals and gaiters just received and selling exceedingly low. In addition to this he keeps any article in the boot or shoe line, and manufactures to order Ladies' Congress lasting gaiter morocco boot, ladies' and gentlemen's fancy cloth embroidered slippers. Likewise gent's first class calf boots made to order $1.50 lower than any other first class house in the city. Lasts fit up to fit the feet, which we would advise every man to have of his own. Ladies' and gent's fancy cloth slipper uppers, silk embroidered, for sale. Wherein consists the crime. If in selling low, we plead guilty; and by selling low we expect to preserve our own interests, and make quick sales and many of them. Inviting you to call and see for yourselves we leave the subject with you.

SEWING MACHINES.

WHEELER & WILSON'S
LOCK STITCH
SEWING MACHINES.
We would advise a man to forego a thresher and thresh wheat with a flail rather than to see a wife wear her health, vigor and life away in the everlasting "stitch, stitch, stitch," when a Sewing Machine can be obtained. The WHEELER & WILSON is an invaluable aid in every household. We have had several different kinds on trial, and after six years' service the WHEELER & WILSON has taken the precedence as the best where all kinds of sewing are to be done in a family.—American Agriculturist.
These machines have MORE IMPROVEMENTS, MAKE LESS NOISE, are MUCH MORE SPEEDY and SIMPLE in operation than any Machine in the market.
